

CUB SCOUT LEADER TRAINING DAY

Trained Cub Scout leaders provide a quality, fun-filled program for boys. When leaders understand the whys and hows of Cub Scouting, they are more effective in their roles. As a result, Cub Scouts receive a program designed to achieve Scouting's aims of citizenship training, character development, and personal fitness.

When: Saturday, October 30th, 2010: Check-in begins at 8:00am. Courses commence at 8:30am. YPT is after lunch.

Where: LDS Torrance Stake Center – 22605 Kent Avenue, Torrance 90505

Courses offered: Cub Scout Leader Specific Training for: Tiger Cub Den leaders, Wolf and Bear Cub Den leaders, Webelos Den leaders, Cubmasters, Assistant Leaders, and Pack committee members. Leader Specific Training is required each time a leader changes positions in the Pack.

...also offered

Youth Protection Training - covers the Youth protection policies of the Boy Scouts of America. Youth Protection certification is valid for two years and is also offered periodically at the District Round Table if you cannot stay for the training session.

To Complete the Training, You will need to complete This Is Scouting, available on-line, UNLESS you have already completed New Leader Essentials. (New Leader Essentials has been replaced by This Is Scouting.)

Please note: Please be sure to provide your contact information; and/or, check the Pacifica District website -- www.pacificabsa.org – for updates! Be sure to let us know what course(s) you desire!!!
